

TIGER! TIGER! M. S. U.

Continued From Page 2.

quickly got the ball again and began another series of rolling rushes, which soon carried him to the goal line, and the Kansas goal. On Kansas' 13-yard line Empyre Mailliard detected Parfrey in the act of fumbling Patti, and disengaged him, much to the relief of the spectators, who knew that Patti was as much to blame as Pauline McAlister took Parfrey's place, and the game continued. The ball, after many steady gains, carried the ball to Kansas' line, and Young was sent around the left end of the oval, and the score was 19 to 6 in favor of Missouri.

The rest of the half was a fizzle, but uneventful, until the Kansas team recovered the ball. The ball was kept well down in Missouri territory, but always when it was recovered, Kansas had given up yards. Missouri's line would take a brace, and Kansas would lose the ball on downs or be forced to punt. In the next few minutes, the ball was kept near Missouri's goal, and it looked as if Kansas might score at any minute, but Missouri's defense was too strong. Finally, however, when the referee's whistle announced the end of the game, Kansas had the ball on Missouri's 1-yard line, and had just started the game. When the crowd realized that the game was over, and that Missouri had won, they cheered and gave a mass of black and old gold, and the air was rent with the exultant shout of the partisans of the Tigers.

KANSAS WINS THE CHAMPIONSHIP.

Nebesk's defeat of Iowa yesterday by a score of 6 to 0 gives Kansas the championship of the four points out of six games. Leaving Iowa out of account, because she has not scored a single point during the season, Kansas has had 11 points, while Iowa has 10, and Minnesota and Nebraska 6 points each. The points were won thus: Nebraska scored 4 points against Kansas; Iowa 4 points against Minnesota; and Nebraska scored 12. Kansas scored 8 points against Nebraska, and Minnesota 4 points against the champion. The championship by 4 points, though each team won two games and lost one.

NEBRASKA WON FROM IOWA.

The Hawkeyes Played Their Best Game of the Season, Nebraska Scoring Only Once.

Omaha, Nov. 28.—Nebraska football team defeated Iowa yesterday, 6 to 0, well attended. Kiser won the first half, then Iowas finished the season without scoring in their intercollegiate series. There was only one brilliant play in the game, when Kepler, Iowa's fullback, got the ball on our family on Iowa's ten yard line, and carried it to Nebraska's forty yard line. He could undoubtedly have carried it over, however, had he not looked back to see if any one was after him. Very quickly, and made during the instant, the ball being held by a player, he broke through the line. Neither side scored in the first half, but in the second Nebraska steadily advanced the ball until Shiss was punted over for a touch-down, and Fair kicked a goal. Neither side scored again.

Chicagoans on the field at that time, and were greeted with a perfect panoply of yell. One of Michigan's maces was broken, and the others had to be replaced with the college colors, and led by an equally small darky, also dressed in the blue and white, the Wolverines were held in better condition than was expected. It had been carefully scraped and wagoned after waggoned. No accident had been suffered, and the ball was still in till it looked like the door of a mammoth butcher shop, which, to benighted mortals, was probably appropriate.

The Michigan team was rather late in coming on the field, not putting their appearance on the programme. At the start, when time was called a light but chilly fourth wind was blowing. Michigan kicked off, and the ball went wide of the goal line, and was quite weak with force even. Soon, however, Michigan's strength in their first half was evident, and Chicagoan scored her first touchdown. With the ball on Chicago's 45 yard line, Hollister took it, and ran it to the 10, where he prettily executed a cross-over. Ferbert was unable to gain, Bloomington took it through left tackle, and still made good, and the ball rolled behind the goal line, where Richards dropped on it, and Bloomington was awarded a safety.

Neither side scored after that, although the ball was mostly in Chicago's territory. Score, 6 to 0, first half; Michigan, 6 Chicago, 0.

The second half was a repetition of the first. Michigan, scoring a touch-down and a goal, and Bloomington a goal.

Michigan, 12; Chicago, 6. Bloomington made the second touch-down.

PENNSYLVANIA'S EASY WIN.

Cornell Beaten at Philadelphia by a Score of 46 to 2.

Philadelphia, Nov. 28.—The University of Pennsylvania football eleven, the American defeated the Cornell team in the second game by 46 to 2, thus winning the football season with a clean record of victories to her credit.

Two touchdowns and a goal from the field in the first half and four touchdowns and a goal from the field in the second half was the record of the red and blue. Cornell had to sacrifice herself with a safety.

Strategic play, scientific punts and holds and all-around interference were the features of Pennsylvania's game. Cornell's defense can be summed up in a few words—well-kicked, and still worse interference. Cornell's fullback, Ritchie, was lamentably weak and an exchange of kicks between him and Brooks was always good for a few yards yards gain.

There were individual players on the Cornell team who covered themselves with glory, however, but in general, Pennsylvania's left tackle and Sweetland, at right tackle, played brilliantly, as did also Captain Penn.

Penn, with his usual care, at almost any point while the team would strike, Brooks made one forty-five yard run, also a series of three runs, and then, after the bell, he brought back and stoned to Cornell for holding. Mills also made one run of forty-five yards and Gilbert scored the first touch-down of the game. The entire team before being caught from behind by Tausig, Farrar, at right tackle, played his best game of the season. Woodrow, Williams and Brooks were always good for a few yards yards gain.

There were individual players on the Brooklyn team who covered themselves with glory, however, but in general, Pennsylvania's left tackle and Sweetland, at right tackle, played brilliantly, as did also Captain Penn.

Football Player Harry Hart.

Eureka, Kas., Nov. 28.—Ten thousand people sat in the rain to-day and watched the football game between the two teams, another of the games score 6 to 1. Stanford scored a touchdown and a goal during the first fifteen minutes, and then, after a long wait, there was a slip of a minute, but every time the ball came down the field, Stanford had the unripe penalized. Maratta for this offense, Maratta refused the penalty and out the game again, and Stanford was awarded a safety. The referee after Maratta's refusal to accept the penalty gave it to Stanford.

Here the story of the game ends. At the Stanford house to-night was an after-party on the programme. Polley of Cincinnati, a Cornell student, and Maratta, a Stanford student, were the stars of the party.

When time was called a light but chilly fourth wind was blowing. Michigan kicked off, and the ball went wide of the goal line, and was quite weak with force even.

Soon, however, Michigan's strength in their first half was evident, and Chicagoan scored her first touchdown. With the ball on Chicago's 45 yard line, Hollister took it, and ran it to the 10, where he prettily executed a cross-over. Ferbert was unable to gain, Bloomington took it through left tackle, and still made good, and the ball rolled behind the goal line, where Richards dropped on it, and Bloomington was awarded a safety.

Neither side scored after that, although the ball was mostly in Chicago's territory. Score, 6 to 0, first half; Michigan, 6 Chicago, 0.

The second half was a repetition of the first. Michigan, scoring a touch-down and a goal, and Bloomington a goal.

Michigan, 12; Chicago, 6. Bloomington made the second touch-down.

Penn State Wins.

Cornell Beaten at Philadelphia by a Score of 46 to 2.

Philadelphia, Nov. 28.—The University of Pennsylvania football eleven, the American defeated the Cornell team in the second game by 46 to 2, thus winning the football season with a clean record of victories to her credit.

Two touchdowns and a goal from the field in the first half and four touchdowns and a goal from the field in the second half was the record of the red and blue. Cornell had to sacrifice herself with a safety.

Strategic play, scientific punts and holds and all-around interference were the features of Pennsylvania's game. Cornell's defense can be summed up in a few words—well-kicked, and still worse interference. Cornell's fullback, Ritchie, was lamentably weak and an exchange of kicks between him and Brooks was always good for a few yards yards gain.

There were individual players on the Cornell team who covered themselves with glory, however, but in general, Pennsylvania's left tackle and Sweetland, at right tackle, played brilliantly, as did also Captain Penn.

Football Player Harry Hart.

Eureka, Kas., Nov. 28.—Ten thousand people sat in the rain to-day and watched the football game between the two teams, another of the games score 6 to 1. Stanford scored a touchdown and a goal during the first fifteen minutes, and then, after a long wait, there was a slip of a minute, but every time the ball came down the field, Stanford had the unripe penalized. Maratta for this offense, Maratta refused the penalty and out the game again, and Stanford was awarded a safety. The referee after Maratta's refusal to accept the penalty gave it to Stanford.

Here the story of the game ends. At the Stanford house to-night was an after-party on the programme. Polley of Cincinnati, a Cornell student, and Maratta, a Stanford student, were the stars of the party.

When time was called a light but chilly fourth wind was blowing. Michigan kicked off, and the ball went wide of the goal line, and was quite weak with force even.

Soon, however, Michigan's strength in their first half was evident, and Chicagoan scored her first touchdown. With the ball on Chicago's 45 yard line, Hollister took it, and ran it to the 10, where he prettily executed a cross-over. Ferbert was unable to gain, Bloomington took it through left tackle, and still made good, and the ball rolled behind the goal line, where Richards dropped on it, and Bloomington was awarded a safety.

Neither side scored after that, although the ball was mostly in Chicago's territory. Score, 6 to 0, first half; Michigan, 6 Chicago, 0.

The second half was a repetition of the first. Michigan, scoring a touch-down and a goal, and Bloomington a goal.

Michigan, 12; Chicago, 6. Bloomington made the second touch-down.

Penn State Wins.

Cornell Beaten at Philadelphia by a Score of 46 to 2.

Philadelphia, Nov. 28.—The University of Pennsylvania football eleven, the American defeated the Cornell team in the second game by 46 to 2, thus winning the football season with a clean record of victories to her credit.

Two touchdowns and a goal from the field in the first half and four touchdowns and a goal from the field in the second half was the record of the red and blue. Cornell had to sacrifice herself with a safety.

Strategic play, scientific punts and holds and all-around interference were the features of Pennsylvania's game. Cornell's defense can be summed up in a few words—well-kicked, and still worse interference. Cornell's fullback, Ritchie, was lamentably weak and an exchange of kicks between him and Brooks was always good for a few yards yards gain.

There were individual players on the Cornell team who covered themselves with glory, however, but in general, Pennsylvania's left tackle and Sweetland, at right tackle, played brilliantly, as did also Captain Penn.

Football Player Harry Hart.

Eureka, Kas., Nov. 28.—Ten thousand people sat in the rain to-day and watched the football game between the two teams, another of the games score 6 to 1. Stanford scored a touchdown and a goal during the first fifteen minutes, and then, after a long wait, there was a slip of a minute, but every time the ball came down the field, Stanford had the unripe penalized. Maratta for this offense, Maratta refused the penalty and out the game again, and Stanford was awarded a safety. The referee after Maratta's refusal to accept the penalty gave it to Stanford.

Here the story of the game ends. At the Stanford house to-night was an after-party on the programme. Polley of Cincinnati, a Cornell student, and Maratta, a Stanford student, were the stars of the party.

When time was called a light but chilly fourth wind was blowing. Michigan kicked off, and the ball went wide of the goal line, and was quite weak with force even.

Soon, however, Michigan's strength in their first half was evident, and Chicagoan scored her first touchdown. With the ball on Chicago's 45 yard line, Hollister took it, and ran it to the 10, where he prettily executed a cross-over. Ferbert was unable to gain, Bloomington took it through left tackle, and still made good, and the ball rolled behind the goal line, where Richards dropped on it, and Bloomington was awarded a safety.

Neither side scored after that, although the ball was mostly in Chicago's territory. Score, 6 to 0, first half; Michigan, 6 Chicago, 0.

The second half was a repetition of the first. Michigan, scoring a touch-down and a goal, and Bloomington a goal.

Michigan, 12; Chicago, 6. Bloomington made the second touch-down.

Penn State Wins.

Cornell Beaten at Philadelphia by a Score of 46 to 2.

Philadelphia, Nov. 28.—The University of Pennsylvania football eleven, the American defeated the Cornell team in the second game by 46 to 2, thus winning the football season with a clean record of victories to her credit.

Two touchdowns and a goal from the field in the first half and four touchdowns and a goal from the field in the second half was the record of the red and blue. Cornell had to sacrifice herself with a safety.

Strategic play, scientific punts and holds and all-around interference were the features of Pennsylvania's game. Cornell's defense can be summed up in a few words—well-kicked, and still worse interference. Cornell's fullback, Ritchie, was lamentably weak and an exchange of kicks between him and Brooks was always good for a few yards yards gain.

There were individual players on the Cornell team who covered themselves with glory, however, but in general, Pennsylvania's left tackle and Sweetland, at right tackle, played brilliantly, as did also Captain Penn.

Football Player Harry Hart.

Eureka, Kas., Nov. 28.—Ten thousand people sat in the rain to-day and watched the football game between the two teams, another of the games score 6 to 1. Stanford scored a touchdown and a goal during the first fifteen minutes, and then, after a long wait, there was a slip of a minute, but every time the ball came down the field, Stanford had the unripe penalized. Maratta for this offense, Maratta refused the penalty and out the game again, and Stanford was awarded a safety. The referee after Maratta's refusal to accept the penalty gave it to Stanford.

Here the story of the game ends. At the Stanford house to-night was an after-party on the programme. Polley of Cincinnati, a Cornell student, and Maratta, a Stanford student, were the stars of the party.

When time was called a light but chilly fourth wind was blowing. Michigan kicked off, and the ball went wide of the goal line, and was quite weak with force even.

Soon, however, Michigan's strength in their first half was evident, and Chicagoan scored her first touchdown. With the ball on Chicago's 45 yard line, Hollister took it, and ran it to the 10, where he prettily executed a cross-over. Ferbert was unable to gain, Bloomington took it through left tackle, and still made good, and the ball rolled behind the goal line, where Richards dropped on it, and Bloomington was awarded a safety.

Neither side scored after that, although the ball was mostly in Chicago's territory. Score, 6 to 0, first half; Michigan, 6 Chicago, 0.

The second half was a repetition of the first. Michigan, scoring a touch-down and a goal, and Bloomington a goal.

Michigan, 12; Chicago, 6. Bloomington made the second touch-down.

Penn State Wins.

Cornell Beaten at Philadelphia by a Score of 46 to 2.

Philadelphia, Nov. 28.—The University of Pennsylvania football eleven, the American defeated the Cornell team in the second game by 46 to 2, thus winning the football season with a clean record of victories to her credit.

Two touchdowns and a goal from the field in the first half and four touchdowns and a goal from the field in the second half was the record of the red and blue. Cornell had to sacrifice herself with a safety.

Strategic play, scientific punts and holds and all-around interference were the features of Pennsylvania's game. Cornell's defense can be summed up in a few words—well-kicked, and still worse interference. Cornell's fullback, Ritchie, was lamentably weak and an exchange of kicks between him and Brooks was always good for a few yards yards gain.

There were individual players on the Cornell team who covered themselves with glory, however, but in general, Pennsylvania's left tackle and Sweetland, at right tackle, played brilliantly, as did also Captain Penn.

Football Player Harry Hart.

Eureka, Kas., Nov. 28.—Ten thousand people sat in the rain to-day and watched the football game between the two teams, another of the games score 6 to 1. Stanford scored a touchdown and a goal during the first fifteen minutes, and then, after a long wait, there was a slip of a minute, but every time the ball came down the field, Stanford had the unripe penalized. Maratta for this offense, Maratta refused the penalty and out the game again, and Stanford was awarded a safety. The referee after Maratta's refusal to accept the penalty gave it to Stanford.

Here the story of the game ends. At the Stanford house to-night was an after-party on the programme. Polley of Cincinnati, a Cornell student, and Maratta, a Stanford student, were the stars of the party.

When time was called a light but chilly fourth wind was blowing. Michigan kicked off, and the ball went wide of the goal line, and was quite weak with force even.

Soon, however, Michigan's strength in their first half was evident, and Chicagoan scored her first touchdown. With the ball on Chicago's 45 yard line, Hollister took it, and ran it to the 10, where he prettily executed a cross-over. Ferbert was unable to gain, Bloomington took it through left tackle, and still made good, and the ball rolled behind the goal line, where Richards dropped on it, and Bloomington was awarded a safety.

Neither side scored after that, although the ball was mostly in Chicago's territory. Score, 6 to 0, first half; Michigan, 6 Chicago, 0.

The second half was a repetition of the first. Michigan, scoring a touch-down and a goal, and Bloomington a goal.

Michigan, 12; Chicago, 6. Bloomington made the second touch-down.

Penn State Wins.

Cornell Beaten at Philadelphia by a Score of 46 to 2.

Philadelphia, Nov. 28.—The University of Pennsylvania football eleven, the American defeated the Cornell team in the second game by 46 to 2, thus winning the football season with a clean record of victories to her credit.

Two touchdowns and a goal from the field in the first half and four touchdowns and a goal from the field in the second half was the record of the red and blue. Cornell had to sacrifice herself with a safety.

Strategic play, scientific punts and holds and all-around interference were the features of Pennsylvania's game. Cornell's defense can be summed up in a few words—well-kicked, and still worse interference. Cornell's fullback, Ritchie, was lamentably weak and an exchange of kicks between him and Brooks was always good for a few yards yards gain.

There were individual players on the Cornell team who covered themselves with glory, however, but in general, Pennsylvania's left tackle and Sweetland, at right tackle, played brilliantly, as did also Captain Penn.

Football Player Harry Hart.

Eureka, Kas., Nov. 28.—Ten thousand people sat in the rain to-day and watched the football game between the two teams, another of the games score 6 to 1. Stanford scored a touchdown and a goal during the first fifteen minutes, and then, after a long wait, there was a slip of a minute, but every time